

Privacy Policy

Introduction

Trades Monitor has a firm commitment to privacy in accordance with the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000.

Collection of information

Whenever we collect personal information provided by you we will do so in a lawful and fair manner. We will advise you how and where to contact us. We will advise the reason for collecting the information and the third parties to whom we disclose that information. If you do not wish to provide the information we request, we will advise you what this impact may have.

Disclosing information

We will only disclose personal information in accordance with the Act. This means that it will be disclosed if:

- the information is requested by a current or potential user of your service; or
- when collecting information, we disclose the purpose for or the related purpose that you would reasonably expect; or
- we have your consent; or
- we are required by law to disclose it; or
- it is otherwise permitted under the Act.

Quality of information

We will take reasonable steps to safeguard that the information we collect is protected from loss and misuse and from unauthorised access, modification and disclosure is accurate, complete and up to date.

Security

We are committed to protecting your privacy and will take reasonable steps to ensure that the information we collect is safeguarded from loss and misuse and from unauthorised access, modification and disclosure.

Access to the information we hold

You can obtain a copy of your information upon request, held by Trades Monitor.

Availability of Policy

This policy is available upon request. It will be reviewed from time to time and any amendments will be included in the reviewed and updated policy.
